

Collaboration partners:

MiL Institute

MiL Institute is an international management institute working for value and practice based development of strategic management and personal leadership. Action Reflection Learning is MiL's philosophy for learning and MiL's main competence is to create and implement development programmes and to facilitate processes of change.

W4SG

W4SG (Women for Sustainable Growth) is a non-profit association and a network for researchers and leaders within academia, business, and society in the Gulf region and in Scandinavia. It is connected to Lund University and Zayed University in the UAE.

W4SG aims to promote sustainability and leadership based on participation and commitment. A particular focus is placed on supporting female leadership but also cooperation between female leaders in the two regions. This is done in close collaboration with academic institutions in both regions, and with close connection to businesses and organizations that share W4SG's values.

DWE

DWE (Dubai Women's Establishment) is a statutory body of Dubai government and aims to encourage and facilitate the participation of Emirati women in the professional environment and in society at large. DWE's mandate also includes extensive research to identify and quantify the status of women in the work force of Dubai, as well as initiatives towards women's further development opportunities.

برنامج القيادات النسائية للتبادل المعرفي

WOMEN LEADERSHIP EXCHANGE PROGRAM

UAE- SWEDEN

الإمارات - السويد

We have had a great response to our call for female managers who want to be a part of a unique leadership exchange programme between female managers in Sweden and the United Arab Emirates. There are still a few spots available – contact us today if you want in!

The programme is for you who:

- Have at least 5 years of experience as a manager with personnel responsibilities.
- Want to explore innovative practices to enhance participation and to lead change in a complex reality.
- Want to gain an increased cultural understanding, insight, and contacts with organizations and businesses both in Sweden and in the United Arab Emirates.

The programme aims to promote Sustainable Women Leaders:

- Individual development – self-knowledge, personal purpose, balance in life.
- Organisational and global development – sustainable methods for participation and innovation, enhanced cultural understanding, strong networks and a close cross-border community.

WHEN AND WHERE

20-23 May 2012 (start with dinner 20th)
Klippan, Sweden, and

20-24 January 2013 in United Arab Emirates.

PARTICIPANTS

24 female leaders (12 from Sweden and 12 from UAE) with at least 5 years' experience of a management position and of personnel responsibilities.

COST

In this pilot programme the participation fee is SEK 40 000 incl. lodging and meals – excl. VAT.

INTERESTED

If you are interested in the programme, contact Johanna Steen for more information – johanna.steen@milinstitute.se or +46 40 10 50 04.

RESPONSIBLE FROM MiL INSTITUTE

Johanna Steen
Programme director and learning coach at MiL Institute. Johanna has a Master Degree in Psychology and has experience in counselling of inter-cultural groups.

Maria Delmar
Programme director and learning coach at MiL Institute. Maria has a degree in business administration and a Master in Gestalt Therapy. She has many years' experience of senior management including management positions in the health service.

